DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment of 19 July 2006 has been noted and made of record.
2. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 9-11, 13, 15-20, 22-26 and 28 have been presented for examination.
3. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 9, 10, 13, 15-20, 23, 25 and 26 are allowed.
4. Claims 4, 8, 12, 14, 21, and 27 have been cancelled as per Applicant's request.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments, see pages 11 and 12, filed 19 July 2006, with respect to claims 19 and 26 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 19 and 26 has been withdrawn.
6. Applicant's arguments regarding claims 11, 22, 24 and 28 filed 19 July 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
7. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies, such as the same predetermined event is the trigger for both the stop and pause condition, are not recited in the rejected claims. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).
8. See further rejections that follow.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Art Unit: 2131

10. Claims 11, 22, 24, and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 6,213,652 Suzuki et al., hereinafter Suzuki, in view of U.S. Patent No. 5,669,040 to Hisatake, hereinafter Hisatake.

11. As per claims 11 and 22, Suzuki teaches a job execution control apparatus comprising:

an execution section (Figure 34 [block 313]; column 48, lines 27-59);

a storage section that stores a first condition satisfied by a job which is stopped and deleted without any restriction in response to a predetermined event (Figure 36 [block 330a]; column 49, lines 23-48);

a pause section that makes a job, which is being executed by the execution section and satisfies the second condition, pause in response to the predetermined event (Figure 34 [block 312e], 37; column 50, lines 8-53).

12. Suzuki does not teach executing the jobs in a parallel manner.

13. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to execute the jobs in a parallel manner, since the AAPA holds that it is well known to execute a plurality of jobs in a parallel-manner on page one of "Background of the Invention."

14. Suzuki does not disclose a second condition satisfied by a job which pauses in response to the predetermined event. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide for a second condition to be satisfied by a job which pauses in response to the predetermined event, since it has been held that merely duplicating a step in order to have a multiple effect requires only routine skill in the art. See MPEP § 2144.04; see In re Harza, 274 F.2d 669, 671, 124 USPQ 378, 380 (CCPA 1960).

Art Unit: 2131

15. Suzuki does not disclose a stop section that stops the job satisfying the first condition in response to the predetermined event; a display that displays the pausing jobs made to pause by the pause section; and a designation section that designates at least one job from the pausing jobs to stop, or restart the designated job.

16. Hisatake discusses a stop section that stops the job satisfying the first condition in response to the predetermined event (Figures 7 and 8 [blocks U12b, U12d], 9 [blocks SU5, SU7], 10 [blocks SU21, SU28, SU30], 14 [blocks U34b, U34d], 16 [blocks U34b, U34d], 25 [blocks U52b, U52d], 26 [blocks U62b, U62d], 27 [blocks U72c, U72e]; column 13, lines 15-20; column 13, lines 47-62; column 14, lines 18-26);

a display that displays the pausing jobs made to pause by the pause section (Figures 6, 7 and [blocks L2, L3, L4], 9 [block U11], 11, 14, 16, 24a, 24b, 24c, 25, 26, 27; column 2, lines 42-47; column 12, lines 21-39); and a designation section that designates at least one job from the pausing jobs to stop, or restart the designated job (Figures 7 and 8 [block U12b], 9 [block SU5], 10 [blocks SU21, SU28], 14 [block U34b], 16 [block U34b], 25 [block U52b], 26 [block U62b], 27 [block U72c]; column 13, lines 15-20; column 13, lines 47-62; column 14, lines 18-26). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include a stop section, display section and a specifying section, since Hisatake states at column 2, lines 27-31 that such a modification would allow an operator to reliably and easily identify an already registered job and alter its processing content without delaying processing of the other jobs.

Art Unit: 2131

17. Regarding claims 24 and 28, Suzuki discloses wherein said predetermined event includes an instruction input operation of a user (column 48, line 67 to column 49, line 4; column 49, lines 23-48).

Conclusion

18. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

19. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
